

“

With the education that I receive I intend to become a social worker for the juvenile detention center. My passion is to work with kids who some view as troubled, where I see them as misunderstood. I want to provide motivation to them and give them the sense of feeling that they are not alone. I also want them to understand that it is never too late to make a change in life.”

Cherilynn Collins - Goodyear, AZ
University of Phoenix:
Correctional Program Support
Scholarship Award: $2,343