

“

Once I earn my degree in clinical social work I plan to work with homeless youth. This population has unique needs and I plan to fill that gap.

I also have interest in providing mental health services for children who were victims of sexual assault or human trafficking.

After I have served my community advocating for underrepresented groups I hope to work as a professor at the community college level so I might inspire the future generations of leaders and change makers.”

Jamie Bisesi - Mesa, AZ
NAU: Social Work
Scholarship Award: $1,300